REASON FOR REFERRAL

Jaxon ("Jax") was referred by the Admissions and Release Committee (ARC) on 8/21/2026 after two years of Tier 3 MTSS reading intervention with limited response. His classroom teacher, Mrs. Faith Hensley, reports that Jax reads at about a 2nd grade level, avoids reading aloud, and "shuts down" when handed written work. She has faith that with the right supports he can close the gap. Attention and work completion are also concerns.

BACKGROUND / DEVELOPMENTAL HISTORY

History was obtained by phone interview with Ms. Mullins on September 3rd, 2026 and record review. Jax lives with his mother, his stepdad Chase, and his half-sister Paisley (age 6) at the head of Bunyan Holler, just past Little Caney Freewill Baptist Church, where the family attends and Jax helps his papaw, Dwight Combs, run the sound board on Sundays. His mamaw, Hope Combs, keeps the children after school and joined part of the interview. Brooke stated she has high hope the testing will "finally explain why he can't read
